

- Transformation of Department of Plant Pathology into division of Plant Pathology with dedicated facilities for the Mycology, Plant Bacteriology, Plant Virology, Nematology, Mushroom and Molecular Plant Pathology

- Production and supply of diverse microbial input for the eco-friendly, economic and sustainable crop production under the changing scenario

- Exploring epidemiological and management strategies for the different fruit crops diseases in relation to the changing weather conditions